Thanks for watch ng This is what President Trump just said about Dr Blasey Ford "I thought her test mony was very compelling and she looks like a very fine woman to me She was a very credible witness" So Is he a "fraud" as well? Thanks again

> POINT OF IMPACT @PolNews2
> @BretBaier Bret I see you on Fox right now say ng Both people were believable yesterday NO Ford was not believable to any one looking for the truth She brought NO evidence and NO credib ty! Listen to Lindsey Graham and try to understand what truth is! You sir are a fraud!

While I switched 2 OANN about a yr ago, I heard that Rush was go going to be on Hannity and he was absolutely on fire! I have listened to Rush for over 30 years and the President needs to as well-especially as it relates to the WALL! leave HC alone for awhile and fix the border!

HS Coaches! Tip for ya! MayB if u just doubled the time spent each week on Special Teams- Say from 5 min to 10 min on FGs operation and timing u won't have 2 spend 10 min on the sidelines blaming "the kicker" 4 the "miss" or tell him to speed up more due to a poor snap/hold/block

This idea of "I know the guy, there's no way he beats his wife" as the way we keep guns out of the hands of abusers is ridiculous.

Any person who has been abused, assaulted, etc knows that abusers often present as "upstanding."

There's no way you'd know. That's why it's common.

Rapists can have Ivy League degrees. Abusers can look like "good dads" or have high incomes or "great jobs."

Good appearances are often a cover for abusers. In fact, many abusers RELY on their public reputation to intimidate partners from leaving (ex: "no one will believe you")

Elizabeth Warren @ewarren 8h

This starts with care in how we deploy our forces. Decades of wars have sapped our strength, and the burden has fallen primarily on military personnel and their families. It's not fair to ask them to solve problems that don't have a military solution.

13 39 234

Elizabeth Warren @ewarren 8h

We can honor our veterans by ending endless wars, reining in our bloated defense budget and reducing the influence of defense contractors at the Pentagon, and bringing our troops home responsibly—and then providing our veterans with the benefits they've earned.

13 59 291

Elizabeth Warren @ewarren 8h

Our all-volunteer military has struggled to attract and retain sufficient personnel. A Warren administration will preserve best-in-class benefits for military personnel, and ensure we honor our commitments to those who have served.

information on a call between President Trump and President Zelensky of Ukraine

"Attempts by the president and congressional Republicans to publicly identify the whistleblower are inexcusable and must stop.

"Federal law specifically protects government employees who report official misconduct. Attempts to release any whistleblower's identity discourages future complaints, which are vital to Congress' ability to conduct oversight and uncover waste, fraud and abuse.

"These complaints are made by conscientious public servants out of a sense of loyalty to America and its laws. They should be protected, not maligned by the people in charge of upholding those laws.

"Efforts to leak the name of the whistleblower in the Ukraine case are nothing more than an attempt to distract the public from a legitimate investigation of serious allegations made against the president. In fact, the whistleblower's identity and testimony are irrelevant. Witnesses with first-hand knowledge have testified to the facts, which paint a troubling picture and should be the focus.

"The demand to reveal this whistleblower are purely punitive — clear retaliation for having brought wrongdoing to light. I urge my House and Senate colleagues to protect this whistleblower as they would any other."

Wrong. Not Trump. You are thinking of obummer bowing and scraping before every world leader. He's the POTUS who embarrassed and brought shame upon the nation.

Trump is standing up for America.

NitramLand @NitramLand 33m

Obama is very likely the greatest president of my lifetime. Almost the whole world agrees with that. The only ones that disagree are Americans most recent slave states.

James Brown @Crimsonjudgeon1836 24m

Are you referring to the northern states where slavery was allowed to continue after the emancipation proclamation (which only freed southern slaves)?

I'm sure obummer is the greatest in your fantasy world. but in the real world, no one respects that self serving lying idiot.

The Emancipation Proclamation

President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, as the nation approached the end of its bloody Civil War. The proclamation declared that all persons held as slaves within the rebellious states are, and hence would shall be free."

Despite its powerful wording, the Emancipation Proclamation was limited in many ways. It applied only to states that had seceded from the United States during the winter of 1860–61. Thus, it did not free any slaves in the border states, and also expressly exempted parts of the Confederacy that were already coming under the control of the federal government. The Southern secession states that had already come under Northern control most important, the freedom it promised depended upon the success of the Union armies fighting to enforce it.

Nevertheless, the Emancipation Proclamation did not end slavery in the nation. It transformed the war into a struggle for human freedom. Hundreds of thousands of African Americans fundamentally transformed the character of the war. After January 1, 1863, every advance of the Union army expanded the domain of freedom. Moreover, the Proclamation announced the acceptance of black men into the Union Army and Navy, enabling the liberated to become liberators. By the end of the war, almost 200,000 black soldiers and sailors had fought for the Union and freedom.

Whistleblower started Trump-Ukraine matter, framed issue in way House Dems have adopted for impeachment. Now Chairman Schiff orders GOP: Do not talk about whistleblower in impeachment hearings. If you do, you'll hear from Ethics Committee ow.ly/MrCy50x8W76

As explained in my November 9, 2019, response to the Ranking Member, it is important to underscore that the House's impeachment inquiry and the Committee will not serve as venues for any Member to further the same sham investigations into the Bidens or into debunked conspiracies about 2016 U.S. election interference that President Trump pressed Ukraine to undertake for his personal political benefit. Nor will the Committee facilitate any efforts by President Trump or his allies to threaten, intimidate, or retaliate against the whistleblower who courageously and lawfully raised concerns about the President's conduct.[5]

Whistleblower Protection and Confidentiality. The Committee has a long, proud, and bipartisan history of protecting whistleblowers—including from efforts to threaten, intimidate, retaliate against, or undermine the confidentiality of whistleblowers.

Among other authorities, the Intelligence Authorization Act of 2010 and the Intelligence Community Whistleblower Protection Act include procedures for Intelligence Community personnel to make protected disclosures to inspectors general across the Intelligence Community and to the congressional intelligence committees.[6] Among other things, Intelligence Community personnel are shielded from any action constituting reprisal, or the threat of reprisal for making disclosures in accordance with these procedures.

The statutory framework also prevents obstruction of lawful communications by federal employees with Congress, and of congressional proceedings.[7] And, as mentioned above, the Code of Official Conduct for Members of Congress requires that every Member "shall behave at all times in a manner that shall reflect creditably on the House."[8] The Committee on Ethics has historically viewed this provision as "encompassing violations of law and abuses of one's official position."[9] there r some issues under the dual citizenship. I knew a guy I served with (a cloak and dagger guy) who had dual citizenship and was a bit sticky on the passports he was trying to keep and the TSC he was going 2keep and had to give out his "relationships" in the other country.

The only way I know of to become a dual citizen is by birth I don't think you can naturalize into dual citizenship.

Great Friday night playoff game and tough overtime loss (maybe next time the HC will decide not to leave points off the board and use his kicker James Ives to win it).

Nice day of punting with Paxton Robertson on bad conditions and our trademark goalpost punt drill. This one 4.60 hang and 47 yards. Coaches- Paxton has a HUGE upside as a combo guy (if needed) and solid backup college Punter!

there are a total of 13 states that offer DL to illegals (and thus the reason they want to use the DMV as places to vote) and most (if not all) of them allow illegals to vote in local/state elections. And of course they are all run by the Alinsky Leftists

This holiday season take a moment to think of the postal workers who are working incredibly hard.

Trump wants to privatize the Postal Service and threaten 630,000+ jobs.

I believe we should strengthen USPS, protect jobs and allow post offices to provide basic banking services.

Should I go on?

NitramLand @NitramLand 21h

I've heard this argument before. It's quite weak and only used in effort to remotely justify overt conservative bigotry. Most people just roll their eyes when this comes up.

James Brown ✕ @C[illegible]dgeon1836 18h

You support overtly racist & sexist candidates. You promote racist & sexist policies

What should we assume from that?

NitramLand @NitramLand 18h

That I am a racist and sexist?

James Brown ✕ @C[illegible]dgeon1836 14h

The question was your tolerance for racism. Based on your unequivocal support of racists, I judge your tolerance to be quite high.

I asked the Joint Chiefs what the US should do about China's internment camps of nearly 1 million Muslims. Is US national security strategy still concerned with human rights?

Why not take your question to the other Muslim Countries and ask their "leadership" what they are doing about it or go to the UN. Ya know they have a whole committee just for this right? Why is a question for our JCOS?

The Most Important Tell on Impeachment bit.ly/2rEV8Z4

Two dozen Republicans are retiring from Congress after this session. They are no longer beholden to their voters. When Barack Obama wanted to push Obamacare through Congress, he relied on those outgoing Democrats to get it over the threshold.

Of the dozens of Republicans retiring, a good number do not like Donald Trump. In fact, in private some of them speak of him in highly critical terms. Several of them blame Donald Trump for the GOP losing control of the House, they predict doom for the GOP in 2020, and they blame Donald Trump for their departure.

They do not like the President, they think he's a long term bad influence on American politics, they blame him for their own political careers ending, they no longer have to worry about their voters, and the Democrats will get not a single one of them to vote for impeachment.

Regardless of the long term strategic impact of tonight's air strike, there will be a response from Iran and it will be ugly. The conflict between the US and Iran is now more dire than it has been since the hostages were released 40 years ago and there will be more blood spilled.

Disgraceful:

Bernie Sanders AND Elizabeth Warren are hosting a conference call with pro-Iran group NIAC the day after Iran bombed our military bases

The lobby group has close ties with Tehran & the Iranian government

I'm on the radio for the fifth hour talking about impeachment today and it is somewhat soul-crushing because if we're all honest, we know it doesn't matter and we know the President won't be impeached and everyone just wants to pretend its a big deal and it really isn't.

It's a big fucking deal. The GOP is proving to the American people that they are interested in neither the truth nor the rule of law. This may move opinion only slightly, but it was going to be a close election in 2020 anyhow, so it is significant

Dear Messrs. Cooper and Kath:

Pursuant to the House of Representatives' impeachment inquiry, we write to request the voluntary appearance of your client, Ambassador John Bolton, at a deposition on November 7, 2019, at 9:30 a.m. at The Capitol, HVC-304.

This deposition will be conducted jointly by the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the Committee on Oversight and Reform. The deposition transcript shall be part of the impeachment inquiry and shared among the Committees. Your client's failure or refusal to appear at the deposition, including at the direction or behest of the President or the White House, shall constitute evidence of obstruction of the House's impeachment inquiry and may be used as an adverse inference against the President.

The Committees are investigating the extent to which President Trump jeopardized U.S. national security by pressing Ukraine to interfere with our 2020 election and by withholding a White House meeting with the President of Ukraine and military assistance provided by Congress to help Ukraine counter Russian aggression, as well as any efforts to cover up these matters.

Based upon public reporting and evidence gathered as part of the impeachment inquiry, we believe that your client possesses information relevant to these matters.

If you have any questions, please contact staff for the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence at (202) 225-7690.

Republican senators who keep pushing to make the whistleblower's name public on this trial are simply bad faith actors. Their contempt for political, cultural, and constitutional norms has been obvious for three years. But this takes their cynicism to an even higher level.

Really pathetic how @FoxNews is trying to be so politically correct by loading the airwaves with Democrats like Chris Van Hollen, the no name Senator from Maryland. He has been on forever playing up the Impeachment Hoax. Dems wouldn't even give Fox their low ratings debates.

President Trump also did not shake VP Pence s hand and if you watch, you can see Trump had already turned away before Pelosi offered hers

It was apparently more of an oversight than a snub unless of course he was also snubbing Pence

My point being that the urgency and pain isn't felt in the same way. That matters even though no one will want to admit it

I also noted that the caucus system is UNDemocratic & suppresses votes of historically marginalized like folks with accessibility needs and single parents

That was a disgrace. I should not have gone.

It was a re-election pep rally from beginning to end, filled with political stunts and verifiable lie after verifiable lie.

I get it... presidents use their last SOTU to make the case for re-election. But that crossed a line.

no its YOU who does not make any sense but cool use of Rule 8! The reason why I DONT need a lesson is because there is nothing being set as a PRECEDENT here. It's a shame to try and debate with those who have a TDS level 5. Try and seek some help.

I'm doing an over/under on how many FBI/SWAT agents will B around 2 make sure Stone is "safely" led out when placed behind bars and probably in solitary confinement for 23/24 hours the next 9 yrs. I'll go with 27 (am sure CNN will be there first on the scene) any other guesses?

Can someone explain why people who came in contact with the CPAC attendee are doing self quarantine instead of getting a #coronavirus test? Wouldn't we want to know ASAP if anyone that attendee nteracted with now has the virus?

> Sarah Westwood @sarahcwestwood
> New: The CPAC attendee w/ coronavirus didn t just have genera admission but a higher-level ticket which gave him special access. CPAC staff are in direct contact w/ the patient & are relying on his memories, as well as their own, to reconstruct his experience at the conference.

Player Review

Anderson is a very talented high school history major. He is a great looking athlete with an explosive leg. Anderson does a fantastic job on kick grad. He has a clear ball off the ground and easily has [illegible] and range. His kickoffs are impressive. He drives the ball deep into the end zone with solid hang time. He is a competitor that thrives under pressure. Anderson has the tools to be special. I look forward to seeing him develop over the next several years. There is great potential here. He is a hard working kid with a great attitude and work ethic. Expect him to compete with the best of the best at Vegas ATH in May. Anderson will challenge for a TOP 10 spot. Strong prospect.

As of 4pm 4/2/20, the U.S. COVID-19 mortality rate = 2.1%

Thus far, 4,513 Americans have succumbed to the coronavirus.

The Democrats are counting on Fauci to shriek, "The sky is falling." But the country is opening up and the sky is not falling, as we can see for ourselves. So if Fauci obliges the Democrats, he will only make a public fool of himself #Coronavirus
